

GPs speaking community languages in Melbourne's north

GP members of the Northern Division of General Practice are listed here by languages spoken.

This information has been provided from GPs, who were asked in which languages they speak well enough to conduct a consultation. All languages listed by the GPs have been included in this publication.

The area covered is the Division's catchment and nearby areas: Melbourne's northern suburbs.

Part 1 lists all languages spoken, alphabetically, with GPs sorted by suburb.

Part 2 lists GP clinics by suburbs, and lists languages spoken by GPs at each clinic.

Using the list:

Part 1:

The list is sorted by language name

You can look for all GPs speaking a particular language. GPs are listed by suburb (in alphabetical order).

Notes on particular languages:

1. Chinese has been broken down into the various spoken languages. (Chinese has a common written language, but many spoken languages and dialects.) See under: Mandarin (official national language)
Cantonese Fuchow Hakka Hokchew
Hokkien Shanghainese Teo Chew
2. Languages of India listed are:
Gujarati Hindi Kannada Malayalam Marathi
Punjabi Sindhi Tamil Telugu Urdu
3. For Iran, see Farsi (also known as Persian; also spoken in Afghanistan).
4. Languages of Pakistan listed are Urdu and Sindhi.
5. Languages of former Yugoslavia listed are Bosnian, Croatian, Macedonian and Serbian.
6. The very closely related languages of Assyrian, Chaldean and Syriac are grouped together.

Languages included are:

Part 2: Languages by suburb and clinic

The list is sorted by suburb and clinic

GPs are sorted by suburb, then by clinic name.

You can look for a language in a particular clinic or suburb.

Note: Not all GPs in areas outside our catchment are listed - for example in suburbs in the cities of Hume, Moreland and Banyule.

Free interpreter services for GPs

The Doctors' Priority Line is a fee-free service for GPs and other doctors in private practice, to help them communicate with patients who do not speak English. It provides a prompt telephone interpreting service for medical practitioners and eligible patients. Onsite interpreters are also available if booked. The DIMIA funded service has over 00 interpreters in 00 languages.

The consultation must be claimable under Medicare, and the patient must be a permanent resident or Australian citizen.

The service provides an interpreter within three minutes for the majority of community languages, and is available 24 hours a day, days a week from anywhere in Australia for the cost of a local call.

The Doctors' Priority Line number is 1300 131 450.

GPs must register with the service before using it. For more details or to register, please go to: http://www.immi.gov.au/living-in-australia/help-with-english/help_with_translating/english-speakers/doctors-priority.htm
